

film future

by newcastle film school

We are here to accelerate the ambitious storytellers.

We believe anyone can be a filmmaker and anyone can go big in their film career with the right guidance and tools. We help students go from novice to expert in a fraction of the time and cost. We have spent the last 10 years perfecting our course so you can jump right in and start making a living doing what you love in under 6 months.

Maximise your time and energy

We cut through the noise to teach you what you need to know, when you need to know it. So that you can pour into what really matters, like actually doing the work to make movies! Your capacity is a precious resource. Let's make sure you're using it wisely.

Our Film Future course is valued at $4997 but you can get it for just $2499 by joining before 31th July.

Say goodbye to the guesswork.

A quick little disclaimer! The industry professional's week to week are subject to change. I'll explain why; We're all freelancers (it's how all the pros are employed) and if a big gig comes up we have to take it. But if that's the case we'll try to reschedule and if that's not possible we'll get another industry professional to take over for that week. Trust us, it doesn't matter exactly who it is, we'll make sure it's someone who;

- 1. is awesome
- 2. is definitely worth talking to about that week's subject

Story Theory + Writing Basics

This week you'll be talking to Tristram Baumber, an accomplished writer for ABC, Freemantle, Netflix and Stan. He'll break down the basics of screenwriting, and how he broke into the industry. If you have any questions about this week's videos, he'll be able to take you through anything you need to know. We'll also give you a screenplay writing exercise, so nail something out, and we'll get back to you later in the course about it!

Quick note: Feel free to grab Tristram's details, he offers script consulting outside of this course too, so if you got a screenplay that you think needs a bit of a spit-polish Tristram is the guy to talk to.

What's in this week's videos

All the basics of screenplay writing! We'll go through 3 act story structure with relevant examples, Dan Harmon's 8 point story technique, some examples and a screenplay writing exercise of your own.

Editing Theory

This week we'll get a surprise guest in to talk, you guessed it, editing! Brady will be in on this session too. This is a super complex subject, and it's very technical, so we need a little bit more time to get our heads around it. So bring any questions you might have and we'll do our best to answer them all!

What's in this week's videos

We go through the theory of editing. Look we get it, theory sounds boring, so so boring.. but this is the part of the filmmaking process you're going to be spending the longest on, so it's worth knowing reaaaaaally well. We'll talk colour theory / advanced sound design / simultaneous action / cutting on action / transitions / shot sequencing and general story telling principles.
